

PARIS ROUBAIX CHALLENGE 2012
BY RONAN PENSEC TRAVEL
Friday, March 30th to Monday, April 2nd 2012
4 days and 3 nights in a 2* hotel close to the Stage start

Welcome to the Etape du Tour Paris-Roubaix Challenge program produced by Ronan Pensec.

This is the second edition of this event produced by ASO, the organizers of the Tour de France and other events. We have designed this program to provide you with the most enjoyable experience while you discover the pleasures and challenges of riding the Paris-Roubaix Challenge.

Paris Roubaix is a legendary cycling event and one of the oldest races having first run in 1896, as a warm up for Bordeaux – Paris.

Riders fear and love this race which is why it is called either the “Queen of the Classics”, or the “Hell of the North”. These two quotes below describe how riders feel about Paris-Roubaix.

“The best I could do would be to describe it like this - they plowed a dirt road, flew over it with a helicopter, and then just dropped a bunch of rocks out of the helicopter! That’s Paris–Roubaix. It’s that bad - it’s ridiculous.”

Chris Horner

“When I stand in the showers in Roubaix, I actually start the preparation for next year”

Tom Boonen

This will be a richly rewarding experience as you will not only challenge yourself, but you will meet and share this unique event with hundreds of other well-motivated riders. During this event you will ride the legendary cobbles of the Paris-Roubaix race.

By booking your Paris-Roubaix Challenge with us, you will benefit from our years of experience in organizing tours. We hope that the following information is helpful and we look forward to seeing you

YOUR TRAVEL :

Please arrange your flights to arrive before noon into Paris Charles de Gaulle Airport.

Friday, March 30th

Day

1

Today you will arrive at Paris Charles de Gaulle airport before 12:00 when your bus is scheduled to depart.

Your guides will welcome you at the airport and your private coach will take you to your hotel.

For your comfort, you will be spending the next 3 nights in a 2* hotel.

Your hotel has been booked for you on a half-board basis (bed and breakfast with dinner - wine and water included).

When you arrive at your hotel, you will be free to prepare your bike and/or relax. In the evening, you will have your first dinner with the group and enjoy local wines and traditional dishes from the region. You will enjoy meeting other riders participating in this challenge.

Saturday, March 31st

You will start the day with a plentiful breakfast that will give you energy for this preparation day. After breakfast, you will be given the opportunity to go for an easy ride to warm up and get your legs ready for the ultimate day on the cobbles.

In the afternoon, you will be able to ride to the Paris-Roubaix Challenge start village with its bicycle exhibition, where all the major European manufacturers will be present. This is also where you will sign in and pick up your bib number.

After picking up your bib number and spending time at the village, enjoying the atmosphere and perhaps meeting other riders, it will be time to head back to your hotel. Later on, you will relax over a dinner especially prepared to give you all the energy you need for the upcoming challenge.

Paris - Roubaix

Saint Quentin 2 Star Hotel

Sunday, April 1st

Day

3

Group: D-day, the Paris-Roubaix Challenge!

Today is the day! This is your opportunity to live up to the same challenge as the professionals, by riding a part of the legendary Paris-Roubaix.

You will be riding the last 135 km (84 miles) of this famous Course. Because your hotel is located nearby, you will be able to ride directly to the start area in Saint Quentin.

The race start time is 7.00am. After an early breakfast you will ride to the start village and prepare for the challenge. There you'll take your place among the thousands of other contestants coming from all over the world and competing in this great cycling event.

Your ride will begin in Saint Quentin. The course will take you to the same roads as the pro riders on the next day. You will enjoy the sensation and excitement of being on this course, among your fellow riders.

When you are finished with your race, your coach will take you back to your hotel in Saint Quentin. There you will be able to have dinner with your friends, compare notes, and celebrate your glorious ride.

Monday, April 2nd
